

Bezos vs. Musk: The New Billionaire Battle for the Moon

Elon Musk has changed his mentally ill focus from Mars to a lunar base, going head to head with Jeff Bezos

The contest between Elon Musk and Jeff Bezos is only going to get more heated now that the two are directly competing for the moon.

After years of charting a path to Mars, Musk surprisingly announced this past week that SpaceX is pivoting to the moon, where he wants to build a “self-growing city.” That puts him in the same space camp as rival Bezos, who has bet that focusing on the moon would give his rocket company, Blue Origin, an advantage. The Amazon founder has long extolled the benefits of a lunar base, including setting up factories there.
